

JAZZ MUSIC IS BAD FOR YOUTH

THAT'S WHAT B. ROSENTHAL, OF RECTOR INSTITUTE,
INFORMS MEETING

CASTS OUT SPELL

INTERESTING TALK IS MADE
AT WEDNESDAY GATHERING
OF P. T. A. FEDERATION

The importance of parents' understanding the subtle significance of the universal response to music was emphasized by Bernard Rosenthal, managing director of the Rector Institute, in a talk before a meeting of Glendale Federation of P. T. A. Wednesday afternoon at the White Inn.

Go to the farthest corners of the earth, said the speaker, and you will find music. Every human heart, civilized or savage, responds to its spell. It is the universal language. It awakens in us lofty inspirations, or it stirs the animal nature, as it is refined and noble, or vulgar and sensual. Every composition is written about an idea, a theme, in the mind of the composer; therefore every musical composition is the expression of the composer's thought, and pictures an image beautiful or an image unlovely and even dangerous.

Jazz, says Mr. Rosenthal, is pernicious, especially to the adolescent boy or girl because of its sensual appeal, felt but not understood by the immature mind. The antidote is good music—thorough training in music, not simply piano lessons, but theory, harmony, musical history and the hearing of the best singers and players, to develop musical appreciation. This is the plan of the Rector Institute.

All children, Mr. Rosenthal holds, with very few exceptions, are pure in mind and respond readily to suggestions of nobility and lofty thought. Mothers should understand the insidious poison of jazz and inane street songs and guard the helpless, innocent child from their dangers.

WASTE OF FOOD

LARGE AMOUNT IS DUMPED TO ROT; AUTO PARTIES CAN HAVE PLENTY FREE

Lemons, tomatoes and lettuce, green, ripe, over-ripe and rotting, lie on dumping grounds in the San Fernando valley, near the San Fernando slaughterhouse.

It is claimed that food sufficient for a city is being dumped there. Fresh stocks are available for autoists who take the trouble to motor to the dumping ground and help themselves free of charge.

Packing-house men in the valley declare that the railroad tariffs, recently advanced, they claim, seventy per cent, are responsible for the presence of the lemons on the dump. The lettuce, it is stated, is the only refuse of value; it can be used as greens for chickens.

The tomatoes are too poor to be sold. They are of the low grades, although great quantities may be picked up and be taken home, fit for use.

The San Fernando valley has about 1,650 acres of lemon trees in bearing. One packer estimates every pound of lemons on the dump represents a cost of 2 cents to the producers.

WANT RECRUITS

NAVY DEPARTMENT IS ANXIOUS TO MAN NEW BATTLESHIP;

In connection with the regular program, a one-reel feature film, showing the super-dreadnaught California under construction at Mare Island, was presented at the Palace Grand theatre Wednesday night, under the direction of the United States navy recruiting service.

The great battleship is now nearing completion and it is proposed to man the vessel with California youths. The ship will be the flagship of the Pacific fleet and will be the most powerful vessel afloat.

Representatives of the navy recruiting service were in Glendale Wednesday and interviewed a number of local youths to interest them in enlisting in the service.

If Rate of Increase Continues, Glendale to Double in Four Years

In his talk before the Federation of Parent-Teacher associations Wednesday, Superintendent Richardson D. White mentioned a matter that demonstrates most conclusively the amazing growth of Glendale.

The enrollment in the grade schools of the city at this time last year was 1,995; this year the enrollment to December was 2,480—an increase of 24.8 per cent. IF THIS PER CENT OF INCREASE CONTINUES EACH YEAR FOR THE NEXT THREE YEARS, GLENDALE'S POPULATION WILL HAVE DOUBLED ITSELF IN FOUR YEARS.

There were 1,200 new homes built here in the last year. As Mr. White says, when that many new families come into a community, it means a large increase in the number of children. While not all the new houses are occupied by newcomers, when older residents move into a new house the house they leave becomes available for another family. As there are no vacancies in Glendale, it must be that 1,200 families have come in during the past year.

This rapid growth creates a grave condition of affairs in our schools. Every schoolroom is now full to overflowing. The four new rooms which will be ready at the Intermediate school after the holidays will be full—they are now holding classes there on the balconies and hearing two recitations at a time in the auditorium. The Acadia St. school is filled; when the new term opens and the little beginners enter, provision must be made for another school room.

This is a civic problem set the city of Glendale by the circumstance of her rapid growth, and it is one that must have prompt attention, if her school facilities are to be kept up to their present high standard of efficiency.

RABBIT HUNT

MORE THAN 500 SECURED BY PACIFIC ELECTRIC HUNTERS
FOR CHRISTMAS CHEER

The most successful rabbit hunt ever held in southern California was that taking place last Sunday under the auspices of the Pacific Electric Railway club in Antelope valley.

A total of 640 rabbits were shot and most of these have been placed in cold storage by the Pacific Electric employees on the hunt to be distributed as Christmas cheer to needy families.

Fred G. Volkhart of 407 West Lomita, a well-known resident here and one of the most popular of the Pacific Electric employees, was, with his son, Roy, among the hunters. He was, it is understood, the only Glendale man in the party.

There were eighty Pacific Electric club members on the hunt. It was the most perfectly organized one ever held in the south, hunters declare, and was headed by Mark Stuart and LeRoy Spafford.

Very strict rules governed the hunt, with the result that despite the fact eighty men were involved and hundreds of shots fired, there was not an accident of any kind.

Two Drives Are Held
There were two drives, the first netting 213 rabbits. The first drive covered four miles. The second drive covered six miles and netted 427. Pictures were taken before, during and after the hunt.

Unlike many drives, the rabbits were not clubbed or driven into nets. Only shotguns were used in the kill. Last night the hunters met at the Pacific Electric club in Los Angeles and enjoyed a stew made up of 100 of the rabbits slain during Sunday's hunt. The gathering was attended by Mr. Volkhart.

During the meeting the successful hunt was discussed and it was proposed that another be held shortly. As a result of the hunt more than 500 needy families will be provided with rabbit dinners by the Pacific Electric club on Christmas.

WAGES WILL BE REDUCED
BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 9.—Wages of New England textile workers will be reduced 22½ per cent within a short time, it was learned today, following a meeting here in which practically all textile manufacturers of New England states were represented. Approximately 300,000 operatives will be affected by the wage cut, it was said.

PIONEER HERE TAKEN BY DEATH

EARLY SETTLERS, DIES AT HIS RANCH RESIDENCE

PROMINENT CITIZEN

GUARDED WATER SUPPLY FOR
LOS ANGELES IN EARLY DAYS; FUNERAL HELD

Death has taken another of Glendale's pioneer citizens. Robert Devine, Sr., one of the most substantial citizens of the community, passed away at his ranch home off the San Fernando road, near the southern city limits, on Tuesday.

Funeral services were held at the family home at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and a fitting tribute was paid by friends to the memory of this pioneer. Interment was in Rosedale cemetery.

Mr. Devine was 85 years of age and came to California in the gold rush of 1850. He engaged in mining, then, forty years ago, settled on forty acres of land—the land where he farmed up to his death.

In the late seventies Mr. Devine was janitor for the city of Los Angeles. It was his duty to watch over the city's main source of water supply, the ditch and pipe line that tapped a reservoir at what is now Colorado street and San Fernando road.

Rides Twenty Miles Daily

The water distributing system followed the road through what was Tropic, went through the old school grounds and finally reached a reservoir near what is now Eastlake park. As this was the principal water supply for the city of Los Angeles, Mr. Devine had a large duty to perform in guarding the system and daily it was his custom to ride horseback over the entire route, a matter of about twenty miles.

Mr. Devine was a quiet and unassuming man, ever ready to do his full duty to the community. He was very prominent in early affairs and was one of the most popular members of the Old Settlers' association and always looked forward with keen anticipation to the annual picnics held by that organization.

Of late years Mr. Devine was not so active in community affairs, although he was a director in the Glendale National bank. He is survived by a widow, two daughters, Miss Mabel and Miss Florence, and a son, Robert, Jr.

The sympathy of all who know the family, especially among the older residents of the community, is extended to the widow, the daughters and the son.

HOLD RECEPTION

NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF
W. C. T. U. FROM THIS CITY IN ATTENDANCE

A number of Glendale ladies were guests Tuesday evening at a large reception at the Ebbl clubhouse, Eighteenth and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles.

At this brilliant, social affair the hostesses were members of the State W. C. T. U. and the Canadian Maple Leaf club, and it was held in honor of Miss Agnes Slack, of London, honorary secretary of the World's W. C. T. U., who is touring the United States and Canada in the interest of the world prohibition movement.

Glendale ladies in the receiving line were Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, World's W. C. T. U. life member, and Mrs. Kara Smart Root, former World's White Ribbon missionary to Japan. Other Glendale guests were Mrs. Marie Yeoman, Los Angeles county W. C. T. U. president, Mrs. O. S. Palmer, Mrs. Miller and Miss Gifford.

There was a fine program, the speakers being native-born representatives of England, Ireland, Scotland and Canada and the United States. Mrs. Helen Stoddard, state W. C. T. U. president, represented the United States in her inspiring speech.

Miss Agnes Slack, the honor guest, spoke on the world's view of the W. C. T. U. and world prohibition work. As a mark of their esteem and affection, the Canadian Maple Leaf club presented her with flowers and an exquisite gold maple leaf pin.

The W. C. T. U. also brought gifts to the honor guest: an armful of California's choicest flowers and a beautiful California book, "Sunny Days in California."

Refreshments typically English, tea and wafers, were served.

Transportation Expert Now in Glendale to Study Problems of L. A.

R. N. Greenlaw and family are moving from 214 East Chestnut to a garage home they will occupy this winter at 708 North Jackson. Mr. Greenlaw, meanwhile, will improve the lot he recently purchased at 610 North Jackson and on which he will build in the spring. He is an expert on transportation problems and expects to study such in relation to Los Angeles, particularly the union station project.

For seven years Mr. Greenlaw was on the staff of the first vice-president of the Southern Pacific, in St. Louis, and during that time was a recognized authority on transportation, which he studied closely. Later he was with the Mississippi Valley Trust company for an equal time. He was a close associate and co-worker with ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk in solving some of the problems confronting the St. Louis chamber of commerce and has written one or two books on transportation.

Mr. Greenlaw chose Glendale as a residence in preference to all other cities in California visited by him and these were many. He has ordered the daily visits of the Evening News in order that he may the more quickly familiarize himself with Glendale and its people.

PARTY HOSTESS

MRS. R. L. MILLIGAN HOLDS
AFFAIR FOR KENSINGTON
CLUB MEMBERS

Mrs. R. L. Milligan, 114 East Park avenue, was hostess Wednesday to a large party of friends, members of the Kensington club.

The house was adorned with masses of yellow chrysanthemums and a substantial collation of sandwiches, coffee and pie was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Carpenter, her niece, Mrs. Mathews, Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Hammond.

Forty members enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon. The ladies sewed or did fancy work and enjoyed the pleasant chat of familiar friends. The Kensington club is the social branch of the Woman's Relief corps.

Garments suitable for the old ladies left homeless by the burning of Evergreen Home recently are being collected by members of the club to send in a Christmas box. Evergreen Home is a place near San Francisco where widows and dependents of civil war veterans are cared for. The local Relief corps contributes liberally to its support.

MEET ALL DAY

UNUSUAL INTEREST DISPLAYED
IN GATHERING HELD BY
CHAPTER L. P. E. O.

Of unusual interest was the all-day meeting of Chapter L. P. E. O., at which Mrs. Cora Ramsay was hostess Wednesday, entertaining the members at her home, 137 South Adams street.

Decorations of marigolds and ferns graced the rooms where Mrs. Ramsay received her guests. The business meeting occupied the morning session, beginning at half past ten.

An elegantly appointed three-course luncheon was served by the hostess at half past twelve. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames Edith Huntley, Genevieve Goss and Alma Danford.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Anna Goss, assisted by Mesdames Edith Huntley, Josephine Bryant and Mary Campbell. The subject for discussion was "Our Educational Fund, Its Origin and History." Letters written by several of the girls benefited by the fund were read.

All P. E. O. chapters unite in the support of the order's one great philanthropic work, a fund to aid girls in obtaining higher education. This fund is sustained by voluntary contributions and on November 1, 1920, amounted to the sum of $111,172.

Music for Wednesday's enjoyable session was furnished by Miss Isabel Ligriss, who sang with fine musical taste two beautiful solos: "Open the Gates of the Temple" and "Holy Night."

WEATHER FORECAST

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9.—The official weather forecast issued today is: Unsettled tonight and probably rain Friday.

WOMAN HIT BY AUTO IS BETTER

MRS. CHARLES F. GEYER NOT
FATALLY INJURED STATE
ATTENDING PHYSICIANS

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

STRUCK BY MACHINE DRIVEN
BY LESTER SHULL NEAR
BRAND AND BROADWAY

While crossing the street at West Broadway and Brand boulevard about 6 o'clock last night, Mrs. Charles F. Geyer, 118 North Orange street, this city, was struck by an automobile driven by Lester Shull, 226 Verdugo road, and received painful but not fatal injuries.

Mrs. Geyer was taken to the Glendale sanitarium. She responded to treatment with the result that at noon today it was announced her recovery was assured.

Among her injuries, Mrs. Geyer sustained a slight concussion of the brain, but this is clearing nicely, said attending physicians today.

According to Shull's story, he was driving south on Brand boulevard and, just after crossing Broadway, his car struck Mrs. Geyer.

Shull is about 18 years of age, according to a report at the police headquarters and, it is stated, has a driver's license.

CHANGES HANDS

LOCAL POULTRY AND STOCK
BUSINESS IS SOLD; GOES INTO NEW QUARTERS

The Poultry and Stock Exchange, conducted under the management of C. E. Battey, with whom was associated Frederick Haynes, has been sold to Harry W. Saulsbery and Charles E. Spaulding, both of Los Angeles. The business was conducted at 142 North Brand boulevard.

Messrs. Saulsbery and Spaulding have already secured a show room at 117 West Broadway and are now moving the business to the new quarters. They expect to be fully established by Saturday.

Under the management of Mr. Battey, an excellent business was developed and, it is predicted, the new owners will further increase the fine trade enjoyed by the exchange.

The exchange will carry a complete line of poultry, pet stock, supplies and feed and will offer every advantage to the Glendale buying public, as well as that in surrounding territory. Mr. Spaulding is anxious to find a suitable home in Glendale. He and his associate will be welcome additions to the business and social life of the community.

The future plans of Mr. Battey are not yet completed, but he will probably go to the mountains for a short time, he states.

BANQUET READY

GREATER GLENDALE CLUB TO

Details for the get-together banquet to be held under the auspices of the Greater Glendale Development association have been completed and it is certain a good crowd of business and professional men will be present at the White Inn tonight. The banquet begins at 6:30 o'clock.

Any who are not members of the association, but who have the best interests of Glendale at heart, are urged to be present and affiliate with the booster organization.

L. T. Rowley, president of the association, and Roy L. Kent, the secretary, urge that every member be present tonight.

BATTLE AT SEA WITH FIRE
SAN DIEGO, Dec. 9.—The 7,500-ton steamer Sudbury, bound from New York to San Francisco, is berthed at the municipal pier here today, her hold charred and water-soaked and her captain and crew exhausted from a long battle at sea with fire.

A fire was discovered in her hold Tuesday night when the Sudbury was 150 miles south of here and seven miles off shore. Insurance men today estimated the damage to the ship would amount to $1,000,000. Flames broke forth again this morning and firemen cut through steel plates with acetylene torches before the blaze was extinguished.

DECLARES JAPANESE AGITATORS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR UNSETTLED RELATIONS BETWEEN U. S.-JAPAN

Representative Kahn of California, in An Address
Before House, Says Pacific Coast States Do
Not Object to Certain Immigration

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Relations between the United States and Japan are kept unsettled by Japanese agitators and demagogues seeking to stir up hatred against this country, Representative Julius Kahn, California, declared in a speech to the house today. He warned that continued activity on the part of the Japanese agitators might lead to war between the two countries.

The people of the Pacific coast object only to large numbers of Japanese laborers coming into their states, but have no objection to the immigration of Nipponese professional men, financiers or students, Kahn said, declaring that the question is not one of racial prejudice.

"We in California know that the habits and customs make the Japanese laborers a non-assimilable element in our western states."

Kahn said that while Japanese agitators are objecting to the proposed exclusion of Japanese laborers from the United States, their own country has a strict ban on Chinese and Korean labor.

SENATOR HARDING WILL RETAIN HIS SEAT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MARION, O., Dec. 9.—President-elect Harding will retain his senate seat for the present and no immediate action will be taken on the offer of Governor Cox to appoint Senator-elect Willis should Harding desire to resign his senatorial office, it was indicated today in a statement from headquarters here. No hurried action will be taken, it was stated, because of the critical illness of Willis' father. Harding today sent a telegram to Governor Cox expressing his appreciation of the offer.

Special attention will be given by the new corporation to furthering trade with South America, it is expected.

DEFER ACTION ON APPEAL OF BUSINESS MEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Republican members of the senate finance committee today decided to defer action on the appeal of business men for postponement of income tax payments and for extension of losses. Decision to deny the relief asked was reached after a study of a recent statement by Secretary of the Treasury Houston, who said the government could not afford to grant either of the measures requested.

REVENUE AND TARIFF LAWS TO CONTINUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Present revenue and tariff laws must continue for a year, republican leaders of the house agreed today after completing preliminary plans for revision of these two measures. Representative Fordney, chairman of the ways and means committee, today said congress would be showing good speed if a republican revenue and tariff law were on the statute books by the end of 1921.

INSURGENT MOVEMENT IN U. S. SENATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Refusal of Senator Lodge, republican leader of the senate, to sanction introduction and passage of the Knox peace resolution at this session of congress, has started an insurgent movement which may result in presentation of the measure in spite of Lodge's disapproval.

Senators who deem immediate return to a peace status imperative will exert pressure on Senator Knox to permit one of them to introduce the resolution which declared the state of war between the United States and Germany at an end.

RESIGNATION IS RECEIVED

GENEVA, Dec. 9.—Disagreement in the League of Nations was emphasized today when the resignation of H. Pueyrredon as vice-president of the assembly was laid before the session. The Argentine leader's successor will be selected Saturday.

The Woman's Relief corps will serve a noon dinner to the comrades of the G. A. R. on Saturday at the G. A. R. hall.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Some people stoop to very small business tactics. A friend of mine today said his sister had just placed $4000 insurance on her house at a high price and she did so because she was told that H. L. Miller Co. had Assemblyman White's insurance and his house burnt down and my companies would not pay the insurance. This is a falsehood. I did not have one dollar on Mr. White's place and I will say that I have only had two fires in Glendale. One the Elks' Lodge and the other McMullin's Dairy. They were both paid inside of three days; ask them or Mr. White to verify my statement. I do not think we need any insurance men in Glendale of such characters as I speak of. I know who they are but will not mention any names.

BAZAAR READY

LARGE AFFAIR TO BE HELD FOR METHODIST CHURCH AT END OF WEEK

All details for the bazaar, luncheon and dinner to be held under the auspices of the First Methodist church of Glendale have been completed. Some of the attractive features of the affair were stated in an advertisement carried in The Evening News.

The bazaar is to be held Friday and Saturday of this week at the church, corner of Kenwood and Wilson, and six booths have been arranged. The various booths will display fancy work, aprons, art, infants' and small children's clothes, home cooking and candy. Luncheon and dinner will be served and everyone is welcome, it is announced.

The committee in charge of the affair has gone to considerable work to make the various booths very attractive and, it is predicted, a most satisfying time will be had by all visitors.

HOLD FUNERAL

SERVICES TAKE PLACE FOR CHARLES WILSON, DROWNED WHILE AT PLAY

Services for Charles Wilson, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, who lost his life by drowning in the Los Angeles river, were held at the Little Church of the Flowers, with the L. G. Scovern Undertaking company in charge of the interment, which was in Forest Lawn cemetery.

The boy was drowned Sunday afternoon while playing on a raft with several companions. The Glendale police and fire departments directed the search for the body, which was recovered after an hour.

HAS HER CHOICE

SOME MORE EVIDENCE THAT GOES TO PROVE ADS IN EVENING NEWS PAY

Mrs. A. G. Waidelich, of the Waidelich Electric company, naturally wished to move the whole family to Glendale.

Accordingly she began to search for a house. She searched in vain for a month to find a suitable dwelling place here and was about ready to abandon the plan when she had an inspiration to try a "want ad" in The Evening News.

She inserted her ad the other evening, frankly confessing that she is blessed with two children (in order to warn any child-hating landlords, if there be any such in Glendale), adding, however, that they are well disciplined.

She had five prompt answers to her ad, and now has her choice of five desirable houses.

SHARK INDUSTRY

INTERESTING FACTS GIVEN ON TIGERS OF SEA; PROMISE OF MONEY RETURNS

HONOLULU, Hawaii—What the world does not know about sharks is more than what it does know about these tigers of the sea. This is the opinion of experts, who declare that the shark is one of the few fish whose habits, traits and possibilities are almost a closed book. And for that reason, possibly, the development of the shark fishing industry, which holds so much apparent promise, has been neglected not only here in Hawaii, but elsewhere.

During the war a local company, known as the Pacific Marine Products corporation, was organized for the purpose of developing the shark fishing industry, but the firm is now closing its accounts, according to the president, due to the fact that it has been unable to hire enough fishermen to carry on the business.

Shark Worth at Least $12
Just how promising is the shark fishing industry may be computed from the fact that the average eight-foot shark is worth, at a minimum, $12. The president of the local company has drafted a table of income from an eight-foot shark as follows:
Oil, about two and one-half gallons, $2.50; skin, dried, about fifteen pounds, $3; fins, about two and a half pounds, $1.50; meat, about 350 pounds, $2.31; grease, about four pounds, $1.60, and enough left for the manufacture of fertilizer to bring the grand total of $12. And this, he declared, is the absolute minimum likely to be obtained from an eight-foot shark.

As regards catching sharks, a two-weeks' trip should net anywhere from 100 to 200 sharks, which means that the income from such a trip should be between $1,200 and $2,000.

The way the fishermen themselves put it is that when they go hunting for other fish there are always thousands of sharks around to snatch the bait and spoil the regular fishing, but that when on a shark fishing hunt the tigers of the deep leave for parts unknown. Fishermen say that in the isles westward of Kauai a red rag tied to the end of a line is enough bait to catch sharks, and that at other times just a rope over the side with a hook attached will bring in the greedy monsters.

Lack of Knowledge Drawback
The lack of knowledge of sharks is the one drawback at present to the success of the industry. The market for shark products is as big and broad as the world itself, and there is no trouble disposing of those caught.

Considering the shark first of all as a food, fish experts say that shark meat is exceptionally delectable, and one of these experts is H. L. Kelly, formerly with the United States bureau of fisheries and now connected with the Hawaiian fish and game commission. Mr. Kelly while working for the government conducted exhibits along the Pacific coast serving shark meat and other sea food to clubwomen of the leading cities. Naturally, the women were not warned in advance, the fish served being labeled No. 1 and No. 2.

After the women had tasted the samples, almost invariably the percentage of votes cast for No. 1 fish was larger than that cast for No. 2. No. 1 fish was shark, while No. 2 was the usual halibut.

The bureau of fisheries of the department of commerce some time ago issued thirty recipes for serving shark meat. The meat of the shark is white, is slightly gelatinous, and resembles halibut. Fresh shark meat has a peculiar odor, which may be removed by salting before boiling. But it is the salted, smoked or kippered shark meat that is particularly appetizing.

CHURCH PASSES ITS QUOTA
LOUISVILLE—The Presbyterian church in the United States has over-subscribed by $100,000 its quota of $700,000 set by C. E. Graham of Greenville, S. C., as a condition upon which he would turn over to the endowment fund for care of old preachers of the church a modern fourteen-story building at Jacksonville, Fla.

When the 1920 census was taken a few months ago in Beckenridge, Texas, the count showed a scant 2,000 persons. Now there are 25,000 in the town. Oil, of course.

Because of fuel oil shortage, naval vessels equipped with oil-burning engines were recently ordered to reduce their speed.

Mr. White urged that parents visit the schools and make the acquaintance of their children's teachers; this co-operation is vital to the interests of the child and to the teacher's success in her work with him. It is the parents who do not know the teachers' problems who make trouble, never the parent who is giving sympathetic co-operation.

The musical numbers of the program were furnished by Mrs. Spencer Robinson and Mrs. Natalie Hall. Their exquisite duet, "The Ferry to Shadowtown," was received with such favor by the audience that they were compelled to respond to two insistent encores. The ladies not being prepared with other duets, Mrs. Hall sang and Mrs. Robinson played her accompaniments.

Before the program was over, the ladies graciously acceded to a request to repeat the duet.

Refreshments were of tea and home-made cake, served in the private dining room of the Inn, from the long dining table decorated with sprays of holly. The larger room where the meeting was held was garlanded with artistically arranged sprays of pepper boughs and mountain holly.

Fifty or more P.-T. A. members attended this interesting meeting. Mrs. Lerchin, president of Eagle Rock P.-T. A., was one of the guests of the day.

COOK'S OPENS

ATTRACTIVE CONFECTIONERY IS TO BE OPEN TO PUBLIC ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10

Formal opening of Cook's, the unusually attractive confectionery store located in the attractive new building to the south of the Glendale Theatre, will take place on Friday.

Cook's is located at 128 South Brand and it is one of the most attractive stores of the kind in southern California. It will make a specialty of serving breakfast, luncheon and dinner and the management assures the public that the service and the food will be perfect.

Right at this time Cook's has matchless Christmas confections and it seems assured that the new store will prove one of the most popular places in Glendale.

FINISHES WORK
HARVARD CONSTRUCTION UNIT
HAS COMPLETED EVERYTHING
PLANNED IN FRANCE
PARIS, France—The Harvard construction unit which came to France in July has completed its work in the devastated regions and many of its members have returned to America. Considerable work was accomplished by the organization, which consisted of twenty-five persons. The American architects planned an entirely new town to take the place of Bourneville and a new site has been selected. This plan was drawn up by Hilt Walker of Carthage, Ohio, George Lee of Boston and Prentiss French of Williamstown, Mass. The new town plan has received the enthusiastic approval of the mayor.
A number of the members of the mission who were living at Cherbourg-en-Argonne, close to the point where America made its most successful effort in the war, completed a new survey and map of that village. This work was done by Nathaniel Knowles of Philadelphia, Joseph Hayner of Cleveland, Rupert Giddings of New York and Thomas Wilder of Cincinnati.
While engineers were making the survey, six members of the unit including Richard Sias, of Corona, Cal., and Frederick Blaine of Elyria, Ohio, traced property maps of the district which survived from the war.
